

Canadian Rural Church Network information
Minutes of the 2010 Annual Meeting

On Tuesday afternoon (October 26, 2010), we held the annual meeting of the Canadian Rural Church Network at the Rural Symposium at Crieff Hills. Two new directors were added to the CRCN Executive Committee as Eastern Representatives.

Chair: Eric Skillings – southbuxtonpc@yahoo.ca (United - Ontario)
Eastern Representative - Andrea Ahlers (Anglican - Ontario)
Eastern Representative - Donna Mann (United - Ontario)
Western Representative – Carolyn Woodall (United – Alberta)
Western Representative – Janet Kostyna (Lutheran – Saskatchewan)

Canadian Rural Church Network (CRCN): www.canadianruralchurch.net

To add your name to the CRCN email list: southbuxtonpc@yahoo.ca
The above email will notify you when a new newsletter is posted. You can upload the latest and the archived newsletters at any time, by going to the CRCN website at www.canadianruralchurch.net . We publish from 4 to 6 newsletters per year. Any news articles you would like to contribute will be very helpful to bringing truly a Canadian perspective. Just email them to southbuxtonpc@yahoo.ca

The Canadian Rural Church Network also has a “Google” discussion group. This is a place where you can send you questions or thoughts that you would like some feedback on.

To join the CRCN “Google” group: Canadian-Rural-Church-Network@googlegroups.com

To check out the International Rural Churches Association (IRCA):
www.irca.net.nz

MINUTES – Canadian Rural Church Network
Oct 26, 2010 at Creiff Hills – Guelph Ontario

The Oct 26th meeting of the CRCN was held in conjunction with the 2010 Rural Symposium.

Chair Eric Skillings shared how the Rural Symposium and the Circle M Regional Conferences tie into the CRCN, and then how the Canadian Rural Church Network ties into the International Rural Churches Association.

Cam Harder shared how the CRCN and Circle-M are working together, encouraging folks from Ontario to get involved with the Western Conference in 2011 (Two Bursaries are available to Eastern folks who head to the Western Conference).

Two Eastern Representatives were added to the Coordinating Committee: Donna Mann from Holstein Ontario (United) and Andrea Ahlers from Dorchester Ontario (Anglican), who join Eric Skillings as Chair and Western Representatives Carolyn Woodall (United) from Alberta and Janet Kostyna (Lutheran) from Saskatchewan. The Representatives serve until the next Conference in their home region.